| FIRST WORD, FROM THE FILINGS

THE SIGNAL

We read the public records the rest of the world hasn't gotten to yet.

ISSUE 001 · WEEK OF JUNE 20-27, 2026 · a Brief Scout Media intelligence brief

WHAT CLEARED THE WIRE THIS WEEK: SEC 8-Ks & merger filings · Chapter 11 petitions · this week's building permits · fresh venture rounds.

One force ran through all of it. And the under-covered deals nobody else flagged.

PRESENTED BY MERIDIAN DATA PARTNERS · SAMPLE SPONSOR

A note on the rule that makes this real: nothing in this issue is older than June 20. If a record predates the window — or if it's already been written up everywhere — it's out. We're after the filing before the story, and the filing the story never gets. Every line carries its in-window date, a source, and a confidence tag.

◆ LEAD SIGNAL · SYNTHESIS

In one week, AI bought a company, cut a workforce, and raised a fortune

No single story said it, but three different filing types this week all point at the same force:

BOUGHT	onsemi → Synaptics — a ~$7B all-stock merger (8-K filed Jun 25) explicitly to pull Synaptics' Edge-AI and human-machine-interface tech into onsemi. HIGH
CUT	ServiceNow — hundreds of roles cut across sales, solution consulting, and product marketing, the company crediting "real AI efficiencies" (Jun 24) — reversing its 2023 no-layoffs stance. MED
FUNDED	Engram $98M seed at a $600M valuation (an AI "memory layer"; Karpathy angeling, Jun 23) · Hang Ten (ex-Infosys CEO Vishal Sikka) $32M seed for AI-native software delivery (Jun 24) · Partly $50M Series B for an auto-parts foundation model (Jun 23). MED

THE READ In a single seven-day window, "AI" is the stated rationale for a $7B acquisition, a marquee layoff, and a wave of fresh capital. That's not three stories — it's one. AI has become the operating logic of corporate action, and the filings are where it shows up first.

| THE DEAL SHEET · THE DEALS THE BIG OUTLETS SKIPPED

Selectis Health → Black Pearl Equities — an all-cash take-private at $5.75/share (8-K, Jun 23); tender offer to open early July. A micro-cap healthcare-facilities deal with almost no coverage — textbook first word. HIGH · ▶ sec.gov

Kustom Entertainment → Cycurion — a binding asset-purchase agreement ($1.25M cash + $4.25M note + earnout) divesting Kustom's legacy video unit (8-K, Jun 24); Kustom refocuses on live events + ticketing. Under the radar. HIGH · ▶ sec.gov

Contrast — the deal you've already seen: AbbVie → Apogee Therapeutics, ~$10.9B (announced Jun 22). In-window, but wall-to-wall covered — so it's a one-line footnote here, not a lead. (That's the rule: if it's everywhere, it isn't a signal.) MED

▼ THE FADE · CHAPTER 11S FILED THIS WEEK

Sangamo Therapeutics — Chapter 11 (D. Del., Jun 23); ~40% of staff cut, $30M DIP. The tell is the stalking-horse line-up: Eli Lilly for the zinc-finger/capsid platforms, Astellas for the Fabry program. The IP is being sold faster than the company can wind down. HIGH · ▶ sec.gov 8-K

Camp Mystic LLC — Chapter 11 (S.D. Tex., Jun 24), which stays the wrongful-death suits tied to the July 4 flood. A sober one: the filing's effect is to freeze litigation, and its timing — days before the anniversary — is itself the story. HIGH · ▶ texastribune.org

Romanov Group — single-asset real-estate Chapter 11 (C.D. Cal., case 26-11948, Jun 24) over a Yorba Linda retail center. Watch for a forced sale/recap of the property. HIGH · ▶ PACER

BREAKING GROUND · THIS WEEK'S PERMITS

QTS — $300M permit to expand a Fort Worth data center (wk of Jun 23); the DFW compute land-grab keeps compounding. · H-E-B — $125M, 356K-sf bakery production facility in San Antonio — vertical integration at scale. MED · ▶ therealdeal.com

19 South LaSalle (Chicago) — $50M permit to convert a 132-yr-old Loop office tower into a 32-room hotel + 175 residences — the office-conversion wave, permitted. · Link at Douglas (Miami) — $130M final tower of a transit-oriented megaproject. MED · ▶ therealdeal.com

THE SIGNAL PRO

The brief is the highlight reel. Pro is the machine: a standing alert on any company, category, or zip — pinged the moment a new 8-K, Form D, permit, FCC filing, or Chapter 11 posts, the same day it hits the feed (not the day a reporter gets to it). The intel desk that used to cost six figures. [$XX/mo · sample]

THE FRESHNESS RULE: this edition uses only records dated Jun 20–27, 2026. Dropped for being one step too old or already everywhere: a Sonos FCC release (Jun 17), a Juice It Up! franchise deal (Jun 18–19), a Papa John's closure story (actually February). Feeds that yielded nothing verifiable in-window via our current tools — SEC Form D, USPTO trademarks, FCC authorizations — are exactly what the production engine fixes by wiring directly into the EDGAR / USPTO / FCC APIs, where a same-day pull clears every line to HIGH.
